

change of heart

Can a TV producer find love and save the show?

Diane McCarthy (Leah Pipes - "The Originals") produces a TV show for her arrogant ex-boyfriend, Jared. Diane would love to quit to focus on her successful blog but she can't afford to.

Working on the next show, she drives to the ritzy Shangri-La Hotel but accidentally swerves off the road and gets stuck when a storm hits. Nearby she sees the Forest Cove bed and breakfast. The owner Helen (Lindsay Wagner - "The Bionic Woman") kindly offers Diane a room until her car is repaired and she meets Helen's handsome son Andy (Rick Malambri - "The Lying Game", "Step Up 3D").

Impressed by the charm of Forest Cove, Diane decides to set the show there. Diane and Andy bond over preparing the show and he mentions that he is a fan of her blog, not knowing that she is the author. Diane decides to not reveal her true identity to him but when her assistant accidentally lets it slip, Andy is furious.

Through Diane's blog she is able to save the show and Jared is so outraged he quits. The show proves to be a huge success, and Forest Cove becomes a hot spot destination, leading Andy to declare his love for Diane.

CHANGE OF HEART

MOVIES // ROMANTIC COMEDY, 1 x 90'

www.redarrowinternational.tv

DIRECTED BY STEPHEN W. BRIDGEWATER

STARRING LEAH PIPES, RICK MALAMBRI, LINDSAY WAGNER

PRODUCED BY DOMAIN MEDIA IN ASSOCIATION WITH LARRY LEVINSON PRODUCTIONS FOR PIXL