

win, lose or love

When single parents Clara and Alex become enemies, little do they realize that hate can just as easily turn to love.

Young single parents Clara (Helena Mattsson - "Iron Man 2") and Alex (Corey Sevier - "CSI: Miami") approach parenting in very different ways. While helicopter mom Clara hovers over her son, Oliver, Alex's daughter Emma (Kayla Madison - "Masters of Sex") feels completely out of touch with her father's life.

Their two worlds collide when Alex proposes that his marketing company shoot a commercial at the kids' school, and Clara, up for election as the Parent Group President, objects to the idea.

WIN, LOSE OR LOVE

MOVIES // ROMANTIC COMEDY, 1 x 90'

With Alex's company in dire straits, he is desperate to win the project, so he nominates himself too. To the shock of both Clara and Alex, they tie for president and must work together to run the group until a new election is held. Tensions run high but they eventually agree to produce the commercial together and sparks of romance begin to fly between them.

But when Alex's business partner goes behind his back to override Clara's ideas, she feels betrayed. As Election Day draws near, Alex must choose between staying true to Clara and saving his business.
